

Shipwrecks of Lake Ontario

(Plot the corresponding numbers on the map.)

by Herb Ritchie, Akron High School, NY

1. Sligo - 43°36'N 79°29'W
2. Avro Arrow - 43°49'N 78°13'W
3. R.H. Rae - 43°53'N 76°51'W
4. Olive Branch - 43°55'N 76°45'W
5. City of Sheboygan - 44°5'N 76°45'W
6. Annie Falconer - 43°58'N 76°49'W
7. Katie Eccles - 44°0'N 76°44'W
8. Aberdeen - 44°4'N 77°4'W
9. USCG 56022 - 43°18'N 77°20'W
10. Mary Kay - 43°28'N 76°33'W
11. Comet - 44°8'N 76°35'W
12. Aloha - 44°10'N 76°34'W

THE GRAVEYARD OF LAKE ONTARIO

The graveyard of Lake Ontario
 The Main Duck is widely known,
 For a score of helpless vessels
 On its jagged shores have blown.
 Duluth to Montreal, Cleveland to the sea,
 Veteran mariners spin tragic yarns,
 About an island near the Galoos.

Ancient brigs and man-of-wars,
 Schooners, barques and frigates
 Are derelicts on its shores
 Laden freighters, tugs and tows
 Have grounded on its shoals,
 Held prisoners by rocky tentacles,
 Unfreed in their struggling throes.

The Graveyard of Lake Ontario,
 A sailor's last Port of Call.
 For many a veteran seaman
 Arrived not at home in the fall;
 Lulled by the wind and the waves,
 They sleep in the boundless deep
 In a harbour fair, safe port at last.

by Willis Metcalfe

Name: _____

Date _____ Per _____